

Seaside Charter Schools are public, tuition-free elementary schools inspired by public Waldorf principles. Seaside's shared vision is to foster each student's intellectual, social, emotional, and physical development in a nurturing, Waldorf-inspired public charter school setting that inspires deep learning, a sense of environmental stewardship, and an appreciation for all cultures, the arts, and the ever-changing world.

At the heart of this approach is the recognition that curriculum and instruction must be presented to children in a way that fills them with wonder, reverence, and enthusiasm. By teaching children to care for and respect their physical environment and the earth it instills global responsibility and promotes environmentally conscious living. We strive to build a deep and meaningful community full of students, staff, and parents who are committed to the development of the head, heart and hands through our shared values and sense of responsibility to each other and the world around us.

We aim to provide a rigorous, arts-integrated educational program guided by the Core Principles of Public Waldorf Education to meet and exceed the Florida State Standards. The average cost yearly for Seaside Charter Schools to incorporate Waldorf is over $300,000 a year, on top of the traditional costs of running a public school. We would not exist without the generosity and pioneering spirit of our founding and current faculty, administration, parents, students, and community volunteers, who believe that learning can be challenging and still joyful, and that high quality public education is a cornerstone of our democracy.
